TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Marquee holders must acquire their own insurance for their supplies, utensils, and equipment.
- Marquee holders are not permitted to carry into or sell any alcoholic beverages under any circumstance, at the venue. Only the liquor licence holders approved by FoC will be authorised to sell alcoholic beverages, on the day.
- A limited number of communal drinking water outlets will be made available at the venue.
- Stallholders are restricted to the trade for which they have applied for on their application and must appoint a marquee manager for the day.
- Marquees and trade stalls must always be kept clean and tidy. All waste must be emptied into the bins provided.
- A designated car parking area will be provided for stall-holders. Access to the trading area will be granted between 7.00am – 9.00am on Sunday 07th July 2024.
- All marquee holders MUST clearly display their complementary car park tickets in their vehicles to be readable from outside and carry their complementary entrance tickets at all times. None of these tickets are transferable and in the absence of any, purchase of new carpark and entrance tickets is a MUST.
- The FOC will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused to any goods, provisions or items of value of the stall holder. The stall holder shall be responsible for all such items at all times. If the event is cancelled or abandoned for any reasons, stall-holders should have their own insurance to recover any losses.
- Marquee holders shall indemnify the FOC for any loss or damage caused to the marquee by their activities, including damages to the furniture or any other item provided. FOC reserve the right to deduct supplementary charge from the damage deposit.
- It is expected that marquee is left in a clean and tidy condition. We reserve the right to deduct a cleaning charge from the damage deposit for any untidy or soiled condition handovers.
